Client Initial (please initial each section below indicating you understand and agree to fees and policies)

General Fee and Payment Policy: Here at Center for a Brighter Tomorrow, PLLC we have a range of practitioners and services. We will file your insurance as a courtesy, however if your claims are not paid, you are responsible for the full amount of the charge. Filing insurance does not guarantee payment. Our typical fees are listed below, although there may be a discount for services, if you qualify. Please speak to us if you have any questions regarding your fee. Payment is due on date of service.

Counseling Sessions

Intake with Therapist - $150
60-minute Individual Counseling Session - $150
45-minute Individual Counseling Session - $125
Family or Couples Counseling Session - $125
Group Counseling Session - $75
Crisis Assessment - $150.00

Psychological Testing with Senior Psychological Examiner: Cost varies depending on what type of testing is necessary (Disability, ADHD, IQ, etc). Generally, fees are as follows and may not be covered by your insurance company. Fee includes intake, tests, and report which occur in 3-4 separate sessions. IF a person cannot pay the lump sum: One half of the fee is due at time of service and the other half is due before the results are released to the patient.

Adult - $600 Child - $750

Court Fees: If subpoenaed, the cost for attending as an expert witness is $125.00 per hour. One half of the fee is due prior to the court date and the other half is due the day of court.

Supervised Visitation: If supervised visitation is needed with a non-custodial parent the fee is $65.00 per hour and can be scheduled with a therapist that works with children and/or families.

Case Management Services: Phone calls more than 10 minutes with clients, insurance companies, pharmacies, etc. will result in the following charges and will need to be paid before the next session.

INFORMED CONSENT FOR ASSESSMENT AND TREATMENT

Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____

I understand that I am eligible to receive a range of services from my provider. The type and extent of services that I receive will be determined following an initial assessment and thorough discussion with me. The goal of the assessment process is to determine the best course of treatment for me. Typically, treatment is provided over the course of several weeks.

I understand that I have the right to ask questions throughout the course of treatment and may request an outside consultation. (I also understand that my provider may provide me with additional information about specific treatment issues and treatment methods on an as-needed basis during the course of treatment and that I have the right to consent to or refuse such treatment). I understand that I can expect regular review of treatment to determine whether treatment goals are being met. I agree to be actively involved in the treatment and in the review process. No promises have been made as to the results of this treatment or of any procedures utilized within it. I further understand that I may stop treatment at any time, but agree to discuss this decision first with my provider.

I am aware that I must authorize my provider, in writing, to release information about my treatment but that confidentiality can be broken under certain circumstances of danger to myself or others. I understand that once information is released to insurance companies or any other third party, that my provider cannot guarantee that it will remain confidential. When consent is provided for services, all information is kept confidential, except in the following circumstances:

- When there is risk of imminent danger to myself or to another person, my provider is ethically bound to take necessary steps to prevent such danger.
- When there is suspicion that a child or elder is being sexually or physically abused, or is at risk of such abuse, my provider is legally required to take steps to protect the child, and to inform the proper authorities.
- When a valid court order is issued for medical records, my provider is bound by law to comply with such requests.

While this summary is designed to provide an overview of confidentiality and its limits, it is important that you read the Notice of Privacy Practices which was provided to you for more detailed explanations, and discuss with your provider any questions or concerns you may have.

By my signature below, I voluntarily request and consent to behavioral health assessment, care, treatment, or services and authorize my provider to provide such care, treatment or services as are considered necessary and advisable. I understand the practice of behavioral health treatment is not an exact science and acknowledge that no one has made guarantees or promises as to the results that I may receive. By signing this Informed Consent to Treatment Form, I acknowledge that I have both read and understood the terms and information contained herein. Ample opportunity has been offered to me to ask questions and seek clarification of anything unclear to me.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Date

Effective April 29, 2015

This Notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review this notice carefully.

Your health record contains personal information about you and your health. This information about you that may identify you and that relates to your past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services is referred to as Protected Health Information ("PHI"). This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how your provider may use and disclose your PHI in accordance with applicable law. It also describes your rights regarding how you may gain access to and control your PHI.

Under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"), your provider is required to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with notice of his or her legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI. Your provider is required to abide by the terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices. Your provider reserves the right to change the terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. Any new Notice of Privacy Practices will be effective for all PHI that your provider maintains at that time. Your provider will provide you with a copy of the revised Notice of Privacy Practices by sending a copy to you in the mail upon request or by providing one to you at your next appointment.

HOW YOUR PROVIDER MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU:

For Treatment: Your PHI may be used and disclosed by those who are involved in your care for the purpose of providing, coordinating, or managing your healthcare treatment and related services. This includes consultation with clinical supervisors or other treatment team members. Your provider may disclose PHI to any other consultant only with your authorization.

For Payment: Your provider may use and disclose PHI so that he or she can receive payment for the treatment services provided to you. Examples of payment-related activities are: making a determination of eligibility or coverage for insurance benefits, processing claims with your insurance company, reviewing services provided to you to determine medical necessity, or undertaking utilization review activities. If it becomes necessary to use collection processes due to lack of payment for services, only disclose the minimum amount of PHI necessary for purposes of collection will be disclosed.

For Health Care Operations: Your provider may use or disclose, as needed, your PHI in order to support his or business activities including, but not limited to, quality assessment activities, licensing and conducting or arranging other business activities. For example, your PHI may be shared with third parties that perform various business activities provided we have a written contract with the business that requires it to safeguard the privacy of your PHI. Your PHI may be used to contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services.

Required by Law: Under the law, your provider must make disclosures of your PHI to you upon your request. In addition, disclosures must be made to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services for the purpose of investigating or determining compliance with the requirements of the Privacy Rule.

Without Authorization: Applicable law and ethical standards permit your provider to disclose information about you without your authorization only in a limited number of other situations. The types of uses and disclosures that may be made without your authorization are those that are:

- ⦿ Required by Law, such as the mandatory reporting of child abuse or neglect or elder abuse, or mandatory government agency audits or investigations.
- ⦿ Required by Court Order

- Necessary to prevent or lessen a serious an imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public. If information is disclosed to prevent or lessen a serious threat it will be disclosed to a person or persons reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat, including the target of the threat.

Verbal Permission: Your provider may use or disclose your information to family members that are directly involved in your treatment with your verbal permission.

With Authorization: Uses and disclosures not specifically permitted by applicable law will be made only with your written authorization, which may be revoked.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PHI

You have the following rights regarding PHI maintained about you. To exercise any of these rights, please submit your request in writing to your provider:

Right of Access to Inspect and Copy. In most cases, you have the right to inspect and copy PHI that may be used to make decisions about your care. Your right to inspect and copy PHI will be restricted only in those situations where there is compelling evidence that access would cause serious harm to you. Your provider may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee for copies.

Right to Amend. If you feel that the PHI your provider has about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask for it to be amended, although your provider is not required to agree to the amendment.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an accounting of certain disclosures that your provider makes of your PHI. Your provider may charge you a reasonable fee if you request more than one accounting in any 12-month period.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the use or disclosure of your PHI for treatment, payment, or healthcare operations. Your provider is not required to agree to your request.

Right to Request Confidential Communication. You have the right to request that your provider communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location.

Right to a Copy of This Notice. You may ask your provider for a paper copy of this notice at any time.

COMPLAINTS

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may submit a complaint with the Federal Government. Filing a complaint will not affect your right to further treatment or future treatment. To file a complaint with the Federal Government, contact:

Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
200 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20201
(202) 619-0257

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT OF NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
